

About Our Pastor

Contributed by Administrator
Friday, 28 July 2006
Last Updated Friday, 28 July 2006

Revd Donald Bolt was born in the parish of St. Ann, Jamaica. He has been serving in the ministry since 1981 at New T churches such as Trowbridge, Oxford, Oldbury and as an associate pastor in Gloucester. He is an ordained Bishop. Revd Bolt achieved a Diploma and teaching certificate in Theology from Overstone College. His hobbies include music, reading and walking.

He is married to Joycelyne, with whom he has developed in ministry and together they are now much sought after leaders in the church and community. They are indeed a credit to the church. Revd and Mrs Bolt are the proud parents of Elizabeth, Matthew and Michael. They have been a constant source of strength, encouragement and joy in the service of the Lord and His church. The experience they have gained in ministry over the last 21 years has prepared them well for the challenges ahead.